To whom it may concern:

Please accept this letter as my recommendation as well as recognition of Mr. Hans Wink. I met Mr. Wink in 2013 when he joined my company as a Learjet 35 Captain. Quickly I was drawn to his drive and dedication for the continual growth and success of the company. Hans has on more than one occasion proven to be one of our organizations finest assets. His technical knowledge, as well as unparalleled airmanship was of the finest caliber. Hans has tremendous world-wide experience and turbo-jet experience which led to improvements in our operational paradigms, as well as overall policies and procedures. Mr. Wink brings with him an exceptional pilot resume, as well as tremendous leadership qualities. In August of 2014 he was selected for upgrade to LJ-60 PIC.

Mr. Wink has a level of attention to detail and continual drive towards excellence. As an employee he has always displayed the ability to mobilize those around him in a manner which benefits not only the customer but the organization itself.

In closing, I would like to thank you for taking the time to allow me to both commend and recognize the accomplishments of one of my favorite fellow aviation professionals.

Sincerely,

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Dear madam or sir,

in my position of fleet chief at FAI Germany, I highly recommend Captain Hans Wink, who was employed by FAI rent-a-jet AG as line captain assigned to our Lear Jet fleet from Dec 2009 to Feb 2013.

Hans was responsible as operating commander for LR-35 and LR-55 in VIP operation, and as well in non scheduled world wide air ambulance operations. In addition to his regular duties as commander he quickly qualified as supervision captain to train newly hired pilots on this aircraft type.

Captain Wink has excellent communication skills, is fluent in three languages (Spanish, German and English), and is extremely organized and reliable on any assigned mission. Those fine tuned skills made him the perfect candidate to exercise operational control over our bases under UN mandate in Africa and Asia (Dakar, Entebbe and Kabul).
There he proofed to work absolutely independently to ensure that the job gets done. He is very flexible and and always willing to work on any assigned location, even in the most hostile environment of his last assignment in Afghanistan.

Captain Hans Wink would be a tremendous asset to any flight department and has my highest recommendation. If you have any further questions with regard to his background or qualifications, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Wolfgang Koeppe

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is my personal recommendation for Captain Hans Wink of Flight Ambulance International.
In my capacity as the Chief Aviation Officer of the United Nations Office for West Africa, I've personally witnessed his cooperative spirit, professional attitude, and caring disposition.

Captain Hans Wink works collaboratively with his colleagues and quickly develops an especially close, working relationship with all people working around him. Additionally, one of Mr. Wink exceptionally strong methodologies is his professionalism, technological awareness and cooperative spirit. I have always found Mr. Wink to be the quintessential professional, listening to others opinions with interest, offering suggestions based upon sound technological intelligence, experience, while demonstrates a sincere willingness to try new strategies.

Hans Wink has a pleasant, easy-going disposition, is fun to be with at both professional and social gatherings, and is cheerful, positive, and friendly. Mr. Wink fits in very comfortably with any group of professionals who are serious about their work but also know when it is the right time to joke and relax. Mr. Wink is professionally well-balanced, blends with competence, experience, and cordiality to passengers and other workers. I eagerly give my endorsement of Captain Wink's skills and professionalism without qualification and with the highest praise.

To Whom It May Concern,

With pleasure I write today to share my recommendation of Captain Hans Wink. Hans has been employed with American Jets for approximately three years in the position of Learjet Captain. I cannot overstate his dedication to the welfare of the company, our equipment and his high standard of customer service. Hans has a positive "get it done" attitude that is rarely matched in today's workforce. When considered with his excellent pilot skills and knowledge, Hans has proven to be a valuable asset to American Jets. And, I am confident that he will be a valued team player wherever his career takes him.

Captain Wink has done an exceptional job under rigorous conditions and schedules, and has done an exemplary job without complaint in the toughest situations. He is always first to volunteer for any duty, and his loyalty and commitment are well beyond question. Having been an air carrier Director of Operations for some eleven years, as well as a line pilot, and as of the last six years, the President of American Jets, I have seen scores of pilots come and go. I can think of none that have served more honorably, faithfully or earnestly than Captain Wink. It has been a pleasure and an honor to work with him. Should you have any question about his reliability or performance of his duties, please contact me without hesitation and I would be happy to be of assistance.

Respectfully,

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in reference to Mr. Hans Friedrich Wink. He was employed as a First Officer assigned to the LR-JET fleet, specifically the LR-31A, LR-35A, and LR-55 series of aircraft. His employment spanned over two years (Nov-2004 to Jan-2007).

During his time with Fair Wind Air Charter, Hans proved to be an excellent employee with strong work ethics and a desire to continuously improve his knowledge of assigned aircraft, as well as pertinent company policies and procedures. His flying skills progressed in line with company expectations, and his personal interest in aviation marks Hans as an outstanding aviator and pilot.

During his time with us, Hans displayed excellent customer service skills to our clients and aircraft owners alike.

Hans' dedication, personal motivation, and professional approach to his career would be a clear asset to any flight department.

Dear Mr. Beyer & Mr. Wink,

On behalf of the Sentient Jet I would like to express my sincere thanks for your exemplary service that exceeded Sentient's service standards.

After completing our trip on July 28th our client, Mr. Mita (new member joined 7-26-05) called and asked to stay with the crew of N531RA for his return trip from PBI-ACY. Mr. Mita is a frequent flyer and reports that "these guys are the best he has ever had: they have a great sense of humor and are just a pleasure to be with".

This was Mr. Mita's first flight with Sentient and you both represented our company in a commendable manner that will stand out in the mind of Mr. Mita for a long time. First impressions last a lifetime and you both have done a wonderful job in all aspects of customer service and we are proud to have you represent Sentient Jet.

As a token of our appreciation, please except this American Express gift Check in recognition of achieving outstanding client satisfaction. We thank Jonathon Beyer and Hans Wink once again and look forward to our continued partnership!

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Hans F. Wink has been employed with Ari Ben Aviator, Inc. flight school since June 2003. After completing the professional pilot course I did not hesitate to hire Mr. Wink because of his extraordinary accomplishment with his advanced training, professionalism and positive attitude. Hans has excellent social manners and has been a team player with the ability to solve problems. His educational level and exceptional flying skills are well above average at the Aviator flight school. He is one of our best flight instructors who conducted a number or ground classes as well as flight training for private, commercial, instrument and ATP students in mostly multi engine airplanes. I highly recommend Mr. Wink as a crewmember for any airlines, and wish him the very best for his future.

To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Hans Friedrich Wink has requested from me a letter of recommendation he may use in his pursuit of a position in aviation. I am pleased to provide this letter.

I have been professionally associated with Mr. Wink for more than two years. In that time I have observed his growth from a novice pilot working towards his pilot certificates to a finely-tuned professional flight instructor. He possesses both above-average piloting and instructing skills and a positive attitude towards aviation safety.

Mr. Wink is an exceptionally hardworking, loyal, capable and honest person for whom I am privileged to provide a strong and positive recommendation. I would be pleased to personally discuss the details of this recommendation with any interested party.

Sincerely,

RE: Application of: HANS F. WINK

GENTLEMEN:

It is with a great deal of enthusiasm that I welcome and embrace an opportunity to write this letter in support of the above named applicant: HANS F. WINK.

I have known Hans for a number of years both professionally and socially. Hans is a polite, well groomed young man, a self starter, and quick to learn new concepts. He is equally at home in social circles as he is in the cockpit.

I have found Hans' professional skills exceptional. Just as important, his awareness of others, company spirit, along with his well-timed humor makes him a pleasure to work with and to be around.
Hans will represent your company in an intelligent, dignified manner. You will find his flying skills second to none.

I commend you for having the good judgement to consider the application of HANS F. WINK. He will make a fine crew member.

Thank you for taking the time to review this letter. I respectfully request a copy of same be placed in Hans' permanent file.

Sincerely yours,
